Creative Exchange: Learn something new and rediscover the many facets of San Antonio's creative sector at the Creative Exchange! Conference attendees are invited to place informational materials in the Creative Exchange Resource Room. This is a unique opportunity for creative businesses, organizations, and individuals to share information about their products, programs, and services. The Creative Exchange is accessible throughout the day. If you would like to exhibit, please call (210) 207-6966 to reserve table space.

Revive: A feast for the senses and the perfect interlude to the work sessions, enjoy a sampling of performances by local arts and cultural organizations sprinkled throughout the course of the Conference.

State of the Art with Michael Mehl: A special episode of State of the Art will be taped at Finding Ways and broadcast on KLRN TV during the last week of November. State of the Art is the only local television program that explores the interaction between artists, arts organizations, and art-related businesses that make up San Antonio's cultural industry. This special episode will focus on the ideas and concerns expressed during Finding Ways.
